

Radio Communication Failure Report

Any communication failure with both online medical direction, or any other unusual event resulting in radio communication failure, must be reported to REMSA using this form, within 72 hours of the incident.

Click the image to open the link